

I believe that the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved your time at home.

Indiana's law has been very effective. I went from 5+ calls per day to less than one in a week.

It is crucial to my family's quality time that this law be allowed to remain.

Michele D. Moore